C- About Jade

Meet Jade Garlick, a seasoned industry professional boasting over a decade of travel expertise and a personal journey filled with exploration. From the outset, Jade's wanderlust was palpable, ignited by an early European escapade that sparked an insatiable love for travel. Choosing to defer her Bachelor of Policing, she wholeheartedly embraced her passion, never looking back.

Joining the Flight Centre Travel Group in 2013, Jade's career trajectory was as dynamic as her adventures. While immersing herself in the beauty of Santorini, she received the news of her successful role acquisition, marking the beginning of a remarkable journey. Progressing through leadership roles, from opening a new store to venturing into the luxury domain with Travel Associates, Jade's dedication to excellence only intensified.

Driven by her profound love for travel and an unwavering commitment to client satisfaction, Jade envisioned a service like no other. Thus, Roast & Roam was born—a luxury agency dedicated to crafting bespoke travel experiences all while sipping on your favourite brew.

For Jade, it's more than just booking a trip; it's about curating unforgettable moments tailored to each client's desires. Her ethos revolves around providing not just a service, but a personalised journey filled with insider knowledge, thoughtful advice, and unwavering support.

"I have a passion for travel and an equal care for my clients that I believe is second to none," she expresses. "Anyone can book a holiday online. However, I can book you a tailored holiday that is personalised exactly to your needs; a holiday that is just for you and your loved ones, with lots of little surprises along the way."

No travel brief is too big or small for Jade. With each client, she values not only the opportunity to create unforgettable experiences but also the trust bestowed upon her. As she aptly puts it, "I will always go above and beyond to do anything I can for you. I will be your personal superhero when you are far from home!"
